

Town Hall Meetings

Town hall meetings are an open forum for South Mississippians to bring their concerns, suggestions, opinions, and complaints to Gene's attention. Caseworkers from Gene's local offices are on hand to help constituents with any problems they may be having with federal agencies, including the VA, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and the Social Security Administration.

Gene holds regular town hall meetings throughout the Fourth District. Depending on the congressional voting schedule, he tries to hold at least two town hall meetings per month. If you think your community has been overlooked in the scheduling of town hall meetings, please e-mail Gene and offer your recommendation for an upcoming meeting.
